What About College?

One of the biggest questions facing homeschoolers today is, "What are we going to do about college?" Whether it be the financial expense or a deeper concern for the education and formation of their student, parents face tough questions concerning this relevant topic.

Unfortunately, most are not aware of all their options. Many send their children off to college with their fingers crossed, hoping for the best, while others forgo college altogether and hope that their success in life is not hampered due to a lack of credentials. Check out these recent statistics:

- Literacy among college grads has fallen to 31% (American Library Association)
- 70% of students "lose their faith" at college (The Barna Group)
- College students spend more time in sports than study (National Center for Education Statistics)
- Only 54% of college freshmen will graduate from college (USAToday)

Thankfully, there are other options which provide homeschool families the benefits of an accredited college degree from home in half the time, at a fraction of the cost and with a methodology and paradigm that match the vision of homeschooling.

With much at stake, we stand ready to come alongside you and provide your attendees with additional perspective to the challenging decisions they face related to college.

Endorsed by leaders in the homeschool community like Doug Phillips, Voddie Baucham, Jeff Myers, and more!

Session Listing

1. Your College Degree: Faster, For Less, For Sure!*

For many families, answering the college question is a difficult task. Oftentimes the cost, time required, inefficiencies, or negative college environment are too great an obstacle. Sadly, many families either choose against attending college or borrow multiple thousands of dollars to do so.

In this session, attendees will discover a new, revolutionary way to earn a fully accredited bachelor's degree for a fraction of the time and cost from home! Discover the college answer for homeschoolers.

2. Dual Credit On Steroids: How to Earn Your First Year of College for Under $500!

Who says you need to be in a classroom for an entire semester to earn college credit? With Credit by Exam, students can earn college credit in over 300 standardized subject exams, commonly known as CLEP and DSST exams.

This practical and insightful session introduces you to established Credit by Exam programs which will allow students to accomplish dual credit, saving you money and time while never setting foot in a college classroom. Attendees will learn exam-specific study tips on the five general CLEP exams, which represent the equivalent of the first year of college. Come discover the best kept secret in higher education!

3. Bachelor's Degree by 18: What Colleges Don't Tell You

How did our Founding Fathers graduate from college at 15, 16, and 17 years old? This practical session focuses on how students can maximize their study by incorporating a souped-up version of the dual credit method into their homeschool schedule using the curriculum they already own. Topics covered include: the foundations of effective learning, helping your children better understand their purpose and the college major that best matches, and earning college credit while still in high school.

A shortcut to life or graduate studies, this concept saves thousands of dollars and years of time, launching your student years ahead of the pack. Learn how you can earn a college degree before your high school graduation! Hear for yourself how this is possible.

4. Study Like a Genius: Unlocking Your Brain

All learning is founded on one key—the ability to take in information and then remember it. Unfortunately, most students are never taught how to effectively learn. Each school year, students spend countless hours studying, only to have the information seemingly disappear when they need it most.

Whether a parent or student, in this interactive session, you will learn how to use study tools such as speed reading and memory techniques to exponentially increase your study potential. Discover practical ways to implement memory tools such as the “peg” system and mindmaps in academics, work, and everyday life.

Other Motivational Talks:

5. Education the Founding Fathers' Way*

Mentors, classics, and narratives—the building blocks of our Founding Fathers' education. With the age-segregated systems of today's schools where children are placed on a “conveyor belt” and forcefully crammed information in an assembly line manner, students like George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and John Quincy Adams would not stand a chance.

In this powerful session you will learn how to avoid the many pitfalls inherent with the Darwinian, grade-based approach and will regain the time-tested leadership model of education that is fully integrated with Christian homeschooling, both in purpose and application. Will your student be the next George Washington?

6. Dreams, Desires, Decisions: A Look at Life Purpose*

A life with purpose establishes the difference between a young person that will simply exist in this world and a young person that has what it takes to change the world!

The world steps aside for an individual who is passionately living out a significant life purpose and mission. Most homeschoolers today never lack available opportunities, but instead they struggle to confidently know which items on their to do lists are God-ordained. This functional session will assist students in identifying their individual, God-given, world-changing life purpose and then help plug it into world-changing action!

9. Living Happily Ever After: A Modern Day Love Story

A dreamy story that begins with “once upon a time” usually ends with “happily ever after.” Yet, between those wonderful words are times of tears, conflict, questions, resolution, and laughter. Join Woody and Gina as they take you behind the scenes of their own courtship experience and reveal how the Lord orchestrated events in their life, bringing them to the point of saying, “I do!” In a day when traditional marriage is attacked on every side and its purity and significance devalued, bask in the fact that the Lord is busy writing your story from beginning to end!

10. Growing Up: What Our Parents Did Right*

Woody and Gina team up to tell the stories of their own home-education experiences. Hear them discuss their parents’ commitment to homeschool their children from the ground up and keep their children’s hearts close to the Lord. Woody and Gina will recount what they observed their parents do correctly from a student’s point of view. Additionally, they will outline what they plan to change when they become homeschool parents themselves.

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions

Compensation:

Woody is aware that every organization differs in size, budget, and method of providing honorariums and reimbursements. He therefore leaves the compensation up to the specific group to determine as is reasonable and appropriate to that event. A complimentary booth is appreciated but not required.

Equipment Needs:

He will bring a PowerPoint projector. A screen and an extension cord are the only items that would be helpful.

Do people leave his talks thinking they need to buy a product?

Although CollegePlus! is pleased to participate as an exhibitor at events and does sell educational products, all Woody's presentations are self-contained, practical, and inspiring sessions that do not require the purchase of additional materials. Our sessions are packed with money saving tips and techniques parents can immediately put to use with the resources they already own.
